

Kozuchów - Excavating History- 2011

During Central Market renovations, next to Ratusz (Town Hall), ruins of Middle Ages construction were uncovered and are undergoing preservation. Cellars, wells, and wooden water pipes were discovered. Black material covering cellar roofs is used to preserve the artifact; to be covered with sand for future study.

Photos: Tomasz Rużyłowicz